Mountain House Increases Library Hours

The Mountain House Branch of the Stockton-San Joaquin County Public Library system has expanded its hours beginning Tuesday, July 1st, 2014. The additional hours have been funded by the Mountain House Community Services District.

The added hours provide more opportunity for reading enthusiasts to enjoy the free services and programs provided by the library seven days a week.

“We are thrilled that the Mountain House Community Services District requested to add these hours, providing their residents with valuable access to educational and entertaining programs provided by our library professionals,” said City Librarian Chris Freeman.

Mountain House Branch Library Expanded Hours:

Monday	10 a.m.	-	8 p.m.	Earlier Opening Time
Tuesday	10 a.m.	-	6 p.m.	Earlier Opening Time and Earlier Closing Time
Wednesday	1 p.m.	-	6 p.m.
Thursday	10 a.m.	-	6 p.m.	Later Closing Time
Friday	12 p.m.	-	5 p.m.
Saturday	12 p.m.	-	5 p.m.
Sunday	12 p.m.	-	5 p.m.

As always, customers are also encouraged to make use of the many online services available through the Library website (www.ssjcpl.org) including the easy access to e-books and audiobooks through our Overdrive and Axis 360 services and the access to free or discounted museum and cultural passes via our partnership with Discover & Go.

Customers can also search the library's catalogs online and place books, movies and music on hold or renew items with ease.

The Stockton-San Joaquin County Public Library is a library system comprised of 12 branch libraries and two mobile vehicles that serve residents throughout Stockton and San Joaquin County.
