

CESAR CHAVEZ CENTRAL LIBRARY REMODEL PROJECT

The City of Stockton will be remodeling the Cesar Chavez Central Library located at 605 N. El Dorado St.

The Library is the central hub of the Stockton-San Joaquin County Public Library System ("SSJCPL") for Community Services Administration, technical/specialty services staff, delivery services, and the City's and County's archival, historical, and other specialized collections.

Background

The Cesar Chavez Central Library is a 70,000 sq. ft. facility dedicated in 1964 and partially remodeled in 2004. The City of Stockton Capital Improvement Plan includes the Cesar Chavez Library Remodel. The City Council approved additional grant funding from the California State Library's Building Forward Infrastructure Program.
